

Detailed Synopsis for Why The Child Is Cooking In The Polenta

The show contains references to a fire-related incident and descriptions of violence that some viewers may find distressing. The show contains flashing light.

Fire related incident - the performer tells the story of how she is afraid that her mother would die by setting her hair on fire.

Description of violence - the performer subtly explains how she was abused by a man.