

ALL IN YOUR HEAD Post Show Support Pack

All In Your Head explores real women's experiences of coercive control and domestic abuse. Domestic abuse can affect anyone, regardless of their background, race, class, ability, gender or sexual orientation.

Please find some links to access support services below so that you might support yourself and others with any issues that were raised from the online performance.

Organisations and experts featured on our panel

Ngozi Fulani of Sistah Space

Dr Emma Katz

Lynne Tooze on behalf of The Haven Network

Rebecca Twydell of West Mercia Women's Aid

Further support

Asian Women's Resource Centre

Deafhope
Sign language based service for Deaf women and children

Domestic Abuse – Galop (LGBT+)

IKWRO
for Middle Eastern & Afghan women & girls who are living in the UK

Imkaan
UK-based, Black feminist organisation

KMEWO
Kurdish and Middle Eastern Women's Organisation

Latin American Womens Aid

LGBT Domestic Abuse Partnership

Mankind Initiative

Refuge

Respond
Specialist support for people with learning disabilities

Safe Lives
Ending domestic abuse

Southall Black Sisters

Surviving Economic Abuse

Women's Aid
until women & children are safe

Further resources and further reading

Centre for Women's Justice

Coercive and Controlling Behaviour Offence Review 2019 PDF

Coercive Control: Supporting victims of abuse in a changing legal landscape - YouTube

Controlling or coercive behaviour – statutory guidance PDF (publishing.service.gov.uk)

Duluth Power and Control Wheel

Invisible Chains (book)

Rights of Women – Coercive control and the law

Gender based violence