

CONTENT TO CONSIDER

A detailed synopsis from the company

This performance contains references to real past experiences of domestic abuse, sexual assault and violence.

The stories told will contain references to past abuse and violence experienced by the womxn sharing them. These scenes will not be acted out and will not go into specific, descriptive detail. They are past events being reflected on, with a focus on how these experiences have formed their route into homelessness.

If you have any other questions or enquiries please do get in touch by emailing Emma, our General Manager at emma@cptheatre.co.uk.